10. INDUSTRY CHANGE

QUOTES:

Engaging new younger members and getting them to join and renew.

Board members without vision towards the future.

Dinosaur board members.

Identifying how to reach all the individuals in our profession.

Mergers & acquisitions in our industry.

Other associations exist and what they are offering our members.

Failure to make organizational changes necessary to adapt to societal change.

Willingness to take risks.

Too much focus on the traditional, older member with less consideration for Gen X, Gen Y, and Millennials.

Member outreach and engagement.

Membership growth, competition for their time and money.

The economy.

Lack of strong leadership. We need more leaders/ board members who really work well and hard towards a common goal. Not just bodies in chairs to fill board positions.

Growing non-dues revenue.

We need more money!

Engagement on issues that our members truly need.

Current members do not bring in new members, too much drinking and not enough networking.

Membership recruitment, renewals, consolidations of companies we work with.

Staff workload impacts the number of people we can serve.

Lack of investment in technology.

Perceived lack of value.

Lack of committed volunteers.

WISH LIST

WHAT ASSOCIATION EMPLOYEES WISH THEIR BOARD REALIZED:

WHAT RESPONDENTS SAID:

- I am very impressed with how my board views my job/responsibilities.
- We can't read minds..
- We work really hard, but we need their help in recruiting new members, promoting our events, etc.
- I'm a professional just like they are. I've seen both sides of the boardroom...I get it.

- I'm not their personal assistant.
- Don't micro-manage the people you have hired to do a job.
- That you can't please all 14,000 members.
- We could do better if we weren't stretched so thin.
- The details of my daily responsibilities and tasks.

- We need to stop doing the same old thing if we want to attract a younger crowd.
- Not all work is tangible.
- It is more than a job, it's a passion.
- They have big ideas for what they want to offer, but little follow through.
- Up-to-date technology is critical.

At GrowthZone, we pride ourselves on listening to and focusing on associations and the people who make them run. In order to provide the best possible product to industry professionals, we regularly seek data on the trends and issues facing associations.

Thank you to the association professionals that took the time to respond to the survey.
